

Masters Lamb Camp

"Where Champions are Developed"

June 10-11, 2011 at UGA Livestock Arena Athens, GA

Check in at 9:30 on June 10 - ends around 5 PM on June 11

Register by May 26th; make check to Masters Lamb Camp
Send to: Keith Odom, 1631 Elder Rd., Bishop, GA 30621

The camp will be lead by Mr. Vince McGolden and his son Chase. Vince is a nationally known livestock producer, judge, and show camp instructor. Chase is a champion lamb exhibitor, so he can relate to what the exhibitor is dealing with on a personal level. They live in Fairview, OK where they produce some of the best club lambs in the nation. They have exhibited Purple Banner Champions for over a decade.

Topics include: selection, feeding, health, fungus prevention, training the lamb, training the exhibitor, clipping, & show time prep.

Meals: Two snacks and a lunch are provided each day. A Pizza dinner will be served on the first night.

Camp Cost is $135 for 1st exhibitor, $75 for each sibling. This includes a T-shirt. A parent or adult chaperone must attend with the exhibitor.
Register by May 26th.

Things to bring:

Halter broken lambs (2 is best so that lambs can be rotated for rest)
Shavings (pens are 50-70 sq. ft.) probably 2 bundles are needed
Clippers with sharp blades                      Feed, hay, and water bucket
Soap and fungus control                              Fans and extension cords
Towels, blankets, etc.                                Your favorite show supplies
Wash rack clothes                                      Work clothes with comfortable shoes
Show clothes for a showmanship contest at the end of camp
